DETAILED ACTION

1. The Examiner has received the after final amendment. Said amendment has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 14-16, 19-29, and 35 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
 - Takeda (JP 11-093670) discloses a fan shroud with an outer barrel that attenuates acoustic noise.
 - Takeshita (6,390,770) discloses a fan shroud with a pipes extending between the outer barrel's opening and a hollow cavity, wherein the pipes extend perpendicular from the airflow.
 - Periyathamby et al (6,309,176) discloses a noise attenuating sound absorber with a plurality of Helmholtz resonators positioned on the fan shroud to attenuate noise created in the airflow path.
 - Ngo (6,244,817) discloses a fan noise controller that has two fluid pipes extending from the outer barrel in parallel with the airflow.
 - With respect to claim 14, the primary reason for allowance is because the Prior Art does not disclose a system for noise reduction with the specific limitations disclosed, that is used with a plurality of fans, wherein each fan has an outer barrel.
 - With respect to claim 19, the primary reason for allowance is because the Prior Art does not disclose communicating air from within an outer barrel of an air-moving device to a cavity within an opening that reduces airflow noise by resonating an air plug.

Art Unit: 2837

- With respect to claim 21, the Prior Art discloses pipes extending between the outer barrel's opening and the hollow cavity, however, the primary reason for allowance is because the Prior Art does not disclose the pipes being generally spiral.
 - With respect to claim 35, the Prior Art discloses pipes extending between the outer barrel's opening and the hollow cavity, however, the primary reason for allowance is because the Prior Art does not disclose the pipes extending parallel to the airflow.
4. Therefore, based on the arguments and amendments presented by the Applicant, the Examiner acknowledges the Prior Art fails to make obvious the Applicant's claimed invention.
 5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
